

Rules and Regulations of 3rd Polish National Competition
“Horizons: Emerging Choreographers”
(hereinafter referred to as Rules and Regulations)

I. General information

1. These Rules and Regulations define the terms and conditions of participation in the 3rd Polish National Competition “Horizon: Emerging Choreographers” (hereinafter referred to as “Competition”).
2. The Competition is organised by the Silesian Opera with its seat in Bytom (postcode: 41-902), ul. Moniuszki 21/-23, acting pursuant to entry in the Register of Cultural Institutions no. RIK/O/5/99, NIP [Fiscal Identification Number]: 6260341020, hereinafter referred to as the Opera.
3. The aim of the Competition is to develop and promote choreographic talents, popularise various dance techniques and music by Polish composers and performers. The participation of artists from all over the country will allow the creation of a new quality cultural offer in Silesia. Laureates of the Competition will have the opportunity to present their choreographies to a wider audience during a gala evening celebrating the International Dance Day, the aim of which is to juxtapose the work of debuting choreographers with that of established artists.

II. Terms and conditions of participation

1. The Competition is open to emerging choreographers – dancers living and/or working creatively in the Republic of Poland, who would like to broaden their creative activity. “Emerging choreographers” should be understood as artists who have not yet created and staged fully-fledged choreographies professionally.
2. Any adult person, who is 18 years or older on the day of submitting the application may participate in the Competition.
3. The Participant of the Competition prepares his/her own choreography in any dance technique – the Organiser does not allow the participation of choreographies co-created by two or more choreographers.
4. One Participant may submit only one choreography lasting from 3 to 10 minutes. If more than one choreography is submitted, the Organiser shall accept the first choreography submitted by a given Participant.
5. Choreography may be performed by 2 to 8 adult dancers, and the choreographer may, but does not have to be one of the Performers. The Organiser does not allow solo choreographies or choreographies performed by more than 8 people. Individual dancers may perform in no more than 3 choreographies. If more choreographies are submitted, the Organiser shall accept the first 3 according to the order in which they were submitted.
6. The submitted choreographies must be not older than 2 years, they must not have won other competitions – and this condition should be fulfilled on the day of announcing the results of Stage II of the Competition, pursuant to the deadline indicated in point 9 of this section of the Rules and Regulations. The works presented by the Participant in the Competition must not infringe any rights of third parties. The Participant is aware that the choreography will - be publicly presented and thus if works by other artists are used in the presentation of the choreography, the Participant is obliged at his/her own cost and risk to secure the right to use these works in the fields of exploitation necessary for their public use. If the action of the Participant in the Competition results in the Organiser's liability towards third parties for copyright infringement, the Participant shall indemnify the Organiser and assume full liability towards such third parties in the event of copyright infringement, and shall compensate such third parties for any losses, costs, fees, expenses or other liabilities resulting from the infringement or shall reimburse the Organiser if such costs, fees, expenses or other liabilities were enforced against the Organiser.

7. Participants should choose music by Polish composers. The choice of repertoire is subject to the Jury's assessment. The Participant should indicate in the application form a place where the work can be purchased (link to Internet page). The Organiser shall not be liable for or shall not cover the costs associated with the copyright of the music during the Competition.
 8. The Competition consists of two stages:
 - 1) Stage I – submitting a duly completed Application Form (attached as Annex 1 to these Rules and Regulations). The signed application form should be sent electronically to: horyzonty@opera-slaska.pl, until 27th March 2025. The Organiser accepts a scan or electronically signed document.
